

WORKSHOP ON LYNX VETERINARY ISSUES

4th-5th November, CIECEM, Matalascañas (Huelva)

PROGRAM

FRIDAY 4TH

- 15:00-15:30 Welcome to participants.
Workshop presentation. A. Vargas
- 15:30-16:00 Integration of veterinary issues within the Iberian lynx ex-situ conservation program. F. Martínez
- 16:00-16:30 Collection and cryopreservation of reproductive biomaterials from dead and live Iberian lynx for the establishment of a genome resource bank. E. Roldán
- 16:30-17:00 Coffee-Break
- 17:30-18:00 Reproductive findings in Iberian lynx, 1993-2003. M. Galka
- 18:00-18:30 Haematologic changes between Iberian lynx (Lynx pardinus) naturally infected with Cytauxzoon felis and not infected using a flow cytometer laser analyser (Advia 120) E. Bach

SATURDAY 5TH

- 9:30-10:00 High prevalence of Aujeszky's disease and tuberculosis (TB) in wild boars and of TB in cervids from the last Iberian lynx strongholds. C. Gortázar
- 10:00-10:30 Prevalence of feline pathogens in the Iberian lynx. M. Meli
- 10:30-11:00 Health assessment of the free-ranging Eurasian lynx population in Sweden. M.P. Ryser
- 11:00-11:30 Coffee-Break
- 11:30-12:00 Causes of mortality and diseases of a reintroduced population of Eurasian lynx in Switzerland. M.P. Ryser
- 12:00-12:30 Translocation of free-ranging Eurasian lynx within the Swiss Alps: veterinary supervision. M.P. Ryser
- 13:00-14:30 Lunch
- 15:00-15:30 Pathology of Non-domestic felids. K. Terio
- 15:30-16:00 Histopathological and immunohistochemical findings in peripheral lymphoid tissues of Iberian lynx. L. Peña
- 16:00-16:30 Cell immune response and lymphocyte subsets in the Iberian lynx. J. Moreno
- 16:30-17:00 Coffee-Break
- 17:00-17:30 Immunohistochemical and ultrastructural study of glomerulonephritis in Iberian lynx. L. Peña
- 17:30-18:00 Overview of renal disease and lymphoid hypoplasia in non-domestic felids. K. Terio

